State Secty of Grand Chapter R & A M.
Phila —

Dear Sir — I am trying to find the place & date of birth of John Streeton.

Thru the courtesy of Wm. J. Terry Secty of Concordia Lodge #67 & [illegible] Grand Secty I have the following information

Mr. John Streeton was ~~initiated~~ initiated June 11-1818 in Philanthropy Lodge #127 in Philadelphia. This lodge surrendered its warrant in 1824.

I have an emblem shaped  like a keystone of silver about 1¾ in by 2½ inches inscribed John Streeton Concordia M. Lodge #67 April 6th A.L. 5826 Grand Chapter of State

Could this refer to Concordia Mark Masons Lodge which I understand was dissolved many years ago & another chapter instituted? If so would you have access to the records and would they show the date & place of his birth ~~for these records~~ I will

If there is a fee ~~in this~~ glad to remit —

Mr. John Hudson Buzby,
714 E. Ewing Avenue,
South Bend, Indiana.

Dear Sir:

Replying to yours of 6th instant, will state that our records show that John Streeton was initiated June 10, 1818,/ in our Philanthropy Lodge No. 127, Philadelphia, Pa. This Lodge surrendered its Warrant in 1824, and there is no further record of John Streeton.

I note that you desire the date of his birth, and inasmuch as that information was not required by this Grand Lodge until 1913, I am unable to assist you with this information.

Very respectfully,

Matthew Galt

Grand Secretary.

JOHN C. F. KITSELMAN
GRAND SECRETARY

April 23, 1942.

Mr. John Hudson Buzby,
714 E. Ewing Ave.,
South Bend, Ind.

My Dear Sir:-

In reply to your letter of April 18th our records in the early part of the 19th Century were burned when the Masonic Temple was destroyed so the old records are out. Our present records go back to about 1838.

Our files fail to disclose a John Streeton. From the description you give of his Mark he evidently was a member of Concordia Mark Lodge No. 67 located in Philadelphia. This Mark Lodge has been out of existence for over 100 years. We do not have any of the old records so of course could give you no information on John Streeton.

We are indeed sorry we cannot help you in this matter.

Very truly yours,

John C F Kitselman
Grand Secretary.

7/1/42.

Mr. John H. Bugby

Dear Sir –

I have carefully looked over the records of the names of our members back to 1795 and find no reference to John Streeter. He was not a member of Concordia Lodge.

From your description of the shape of the emblem, and from your statement of the inscription "Concordia M. Lodge" he was probably a member of that Chapter of Freemasonry. In that case he could have been a member of some other Blue Lodge. Concordia Mark Masons Lodge was dissolved many years ago and another Chapter was instituted.

It might be possible for you to discover whether John was a Mason in Pennsylvania and his date of birth by inquiring of the Grand Secretary Brother Matthew Galt, addressing him at Masonic Temple, Broad + Filbert streets, Philadelphia.

Sorry I can give you no further information

Sincerely yours
William J Lowry

Dear Sir — I wish to express my appreciation of your efforts to be of assistance to me in my search for data regarding John ~~Stratton~~ and regret that I caused you so much trouble. but as I learned from you that ~~your lodge~~ Concordia 57 was not his lodge — I am following your suggestion & writing Mr. Gault Grand Secretary.

Thanking you most sincerely I remain

Dear Sir: Your name was given me by Mr Wm J Emery Secty Concordia Lodge # 67 — to whom I had written regarding the date of birth of John ~~Stratton~~, one of my ~~[illegible]~~ great grandfathers — believing him to have been a member of that lodge but Mr. Emery advises me I am mistaken.

I have a masonic emblem of silver about 2 by 2 1/4 ins shaped like a keystone ~~[illegible]~~ Concordia M. Lodge # 67 inscribed John ~~Stratton~~ April 4th A L 5826 1826. I think Mr. ~~Stratton~~ resided at this time in the Northern Liberties of Phila — altho not certain Gano.

Francois Gerneaux, a "French nobleman"? escaped to the Island of Guernsey during the bloody persecutions which followed the Revocation of the Edict of Nantes in 1685.

When the persecution began to claim its victims in the Isle of Guernsey Mr. (Etienne gano written in pencil) Gerneaux was secretly informed by the servant of a neighbor, who had been arrested and murdered, that his death had been determined upon to take place the following night.

Being a man of means he purchased a vessell, quietly provisioned it. and transfered his family to it. and was himself put on board before midnight in a hogshead.

When the sun arose, he was beyond he reach of his cruel persecutors. who comforted themselves in the escape of their victim by the confiscation of his estates

Before taking farewell of his native land - Mr. Gerneaux touched at several Protestant points settlements along the Coast. and welcomed on board his vessel those who were ready to accept the offer of deliverance.

The party thus increased, crossed the ocean in safety. and founded a new settlement near New York which they named New Rochelle after a French town on the Bay of Biscay. 245 miles southwest of Paris.

One son of this refugee who anglicised his name to Gano. was named Stephen who married Ann Walton and had a large family, the oldest was named Daniel.

Francois Stephen Gano lived to be 103 years old - Ann Walton Gano died aged 96 years.

Daniel married Sarah daughter of Nathaniel Britton of Staten Island. They removed to New Jersey. and settled in Hopewell, Hunterdon Co. where several children were born, Daniel Stephen John born 7-22-1727 emigrated to Kentucky, died Aug 10 - 1804 near Covington.

Rev. Stephen Gano. by King, Henry Melville.

Francis Gano.

Francis or Franceis Garneaux of New Rochelle. N.Y. was born in the Isle of Guernsey. died in New Rochelle. N.Y aged 103 years. Was a Hugenot. Came to America in 1686. settled in New Rochelle changed name to Gano.

"Ananias Conklin(9).

Ananias Conkling and his brother John emigrated probably as early as 1635 not later than 1637; the records of Salem, Mass. speak of them as "glass men" and in 1638 the town made a gift and grant to Ananias of one acre for a house lot and on Oct 11 1639 he received another acre - he had ten acres besides. John received a grant of 5 acres - in Sept 1640, The two men made window glass + bottles. Ananias joined the church in Salem in 1639, made freeman in 1642 - John removed to Southold L. I. in 1650 and Ananias in 1652/3. he owned land in Southold in 1653 - and the same year was allotted land in Easthampton, his estate was administered by his son Jeremiah - then by his son in law. who mentions the portions of his wife + Hester's separately, showing there were two daughters

Gardiner -

Lion Gardiner was the first of the name in America. His own account taken from his Bible says that "In the year of our Lord. 1635 July 10th came I, Lion Gardiner and Mary my wife from Woerden a town in Holland where my wife was borne, being the daughter of one Dierke Willemson. deurcant; her mothers name was Hachin Bastians. her aunt sister of her mother was the wife of Wouter Leanderson. Old Burger Master, dwelling in the hopstar over against the brossoen in the Unicorn's Head, her brothers name was Prince Gearetson or Garretson, Old Burger Master.

Lion Gardiner + wife went first to London then sailed for America on the "Bachelor" a small ship, being three months in crossing, He was to take command of a fort under Lords Say + Brooke and on arrival was disappointed in that they did not fulfil the promises as to munitions as to manning + equipping the Fort. which he built as well as he could under the circumstances and having completed his part of the contract and defended the fort through the Pequot War - gave up the command and purchased of the Indians an Island. which they called Manchonake + which he named Isle of Wight but today it is known as Gardiners Island. and has remained in possession of the family to this time. Two of the children were born at Saybrooke and one at the Island, which places the time of purchase between 1638 + 1641

MANSFIELD FRIENDS' BURYING GROUND

CONTRIBUTED BY JOHN P. DORNAN

The first burying ground was given by Samuel Andrews, according to a minute of the Chesterfield Monthly Meeting of Friends dated 6th of 10th Month 1686/7 which appointed a committee "to lay out a Burying Place upon Samuel Andrews land, by his consent for ye conviencye of ffriends thereabout." On the 2nd of 12th Month (February) 1686/7 the committee reported that they "had pitched upon a place in Samuel Andrews land containing two Acres." (Cf. G.M.N.J., July 1949, Vol. 24, page 52.)

The burying ground is situated in the rear of a frame structure (now used as a community house) erected by the Orthodox branch of the Society of Friends shortly after the great schism. It is on the west side of State Highway 206 about two miles NNW from Columbus.

All gravestones that were readable were copied by John P. Dornan on May 13, 1938. There are also some headstones which lack both names and dates but do bear initials. These are added at the end of the main list.

Additional details concerning certain of the persons have been included below. These are placed within square brackets to distinguish them clearly from data provided by the gravestone inscriptions. All such supplementary details, unless otherwise indicated, have been derived from records of Upper Springfield Monthly Meeting of Friends and the Burlington County marriage records on file in the country clerk's office, Mount Holly.

burying ground was given by Samuel Andrews, according to a minute field Monthly Meeting of Friends dated 6th of 10th Month 1686/7 pointed a committee "to lay out a Burying Place upon Samuel Andrews his consent for ye conviencye of ffriends thereabout." On the 2nd of (February) 1686/7 the committee reported that they "had pitched place in Samuel Andrews land containing two Acres." (Cf. G.M.N.J., Vol. 24, page 52.)

ying ground is situated in the rear of a frame structure (now used as house) erected by the Orthodox branch of the Society of Friends the great schism. It is on the west side of State Highway 206 about NNW from Columbus.

gravestones that were readable were copied by John P. Dornan on May There are also some headstones which lack both names and dates but ials. These are added at the end of the main list.

details concerning certain of the persons have been included below. placed within square brackets to distinguish them clearly from data by the gravestone inscriptions. All such supplementary details, unless indicated, have been derived from records of Upper Springfield Meeting of Friends and the Burlington County marriage records on the country clerk's office, Mount Holly.

Dear Mrs. Tusim:

Your letter of April 18 to Yarnall, Biddle & Co. has been forwarded to me, hence, the delay in this reply. I am afraid I cannot supply you with any hidden documents on William Biddle, the first member of our family to come to this country in 1681. There are, of course, various family histories available. May I suggest that you write to my cousin, Nicholas Biddle Wainwright at the Historical Society of Pennsylvania, 1300 Locust Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19107. He may be able to give you further direction.

Sincerely,

James Biddle

Dear Mr. Biddle,

I am writing the history of the Mansfield Township, Burl. Co., NJ, and am very much interested in your ancestors from Mt. Hope in Kinkora., I have read many references to your family's settling there and wonder if you could photo any documents or tell me any legends concerning them.

There are no records of our township kept by the township previous to 1873. At one time, there was 1773-1883, but now that is missing. I have researched the county library and copied information from the 1690-1800 court records on wills and also deeds. Then, I have had the state library photostat the Proprietors' records for me. It is an expensive and hit and miss method, but my only source. I am interviewing families and copying bible records for future file to be kept in the town hall. It is like a huge puzzle with an occassional piece that fits. I plan to work on this for three years so that we may celebrate in 1976 with the rest of the nation.

Any material you can supply would be helpful. Thank you.

Yours truly,

Dear Sir,

I wrote to Mr. James Biddle and he suggested that I contact you for information on the Biddles who settled in Mansfield Township in 1681. Could you give me a resume of thier settlement and genealogy as it would apply.

We also have the Wainwright families in this township. If you could give me any story on them at the same time, I would appreciate it.

I have enclosed the letter I gave out to show what I am trying to do.

I thank you in advance for any help.

Dear Mrs. Tusim:

In reply to your letter of May 30, William Biddle and his family settled in New Jersey in 1681, but whether or not in Mansfield Township I do not know. We have genealogical records of the descendants of William Biddle III who settled in Philadelphia about 1720.

I cannot speak for Wainwrights living in that township about that time. I am descended from Jeffrey Wainwright of Woodbury, Gloucester County who died there in August, 1689.

Sincerely,

TAYLOR OF DORE, PARISH OF DRONFIELD, DERBYSHIRE

The Taylor family of which this sketch treats, came from Dore, a chapelry within the parish of Dronfield, Derbyshire. This parish anciently called Dranefield, lies about 6 miles N.W. by N. from Chesterfield and is in the vicinity of Sheffield.

There is a Friends' Meeting house at Dore. About two miles from the town, are the remains of Beauchief Abbey, founded in 1183, by Robert Fitz Randolph, Lord of Alfreton.

The records of the parish show that the family of Taylor was resident there as early as 25th Edward III, 1351.

"Palm Sunday April 10, 1351. Grant from John de Somerleso to Richard le Taillour for part of his messuage in Dronfield."

(Derbyshire Charters, No. 1045. Foljambe MS, p. 128).

September 29, 1449, First of St. Michael, Lease for 40 years, from William Bolloke, Alderman of the Guild of St. Mary in the parish of St. John Baptist Dronfield and John Hordryn, chaplain of the same, to Thomas Welton, Sen. and Joyce his wife, of a messuage and land in the tenure of John Taylyor in Dronfield.

Witnesses: John Barker, of Dore, William Owtrem, Thomas Fox, William Shemyng, William Cuttlove.

(No. 1064, Derbyshire Charters, p. 130).

The records of the Borough of Chesterfield (p. 151) show that Samuel Taylor served as Mayor of Chesterfield in 1651.

A complete list of all the Taylor marriages in the parish from 1580 to 1678 follows:

Fenwick, model for Doonesbury character, dies

BERNARDSVILLE, N.J. (AP) — Millicent Fenwick, who became a congresswoman at an age when most people retire and inspired a comic-strip character with her outspoken, stylish manner, died today at 82.

She died at her home in this affluent northern New Jersey suburb, said her son, Hugh Fenwick Jr. Her health had been gradually declining for about a year, and "her heart just stopped beating" at 4 a.m., he said.

Fenwick gained fame in the 1970s for her independence and outspoken insistence on high ethical standards and prudent spending. The former model, editor and author of an etiquette book also was known as a pipe smoker, and as the inspiration for Garry Trudeau's Doonesbury cartoon character, Lacey Davenport.

"I was so hurt when I got to Congress. All the media would say was 'pipe-smoking grandmother.' And I would say, 'For God's sake, hard-working grandmother, same number of syllables.' But I couldn't persuade them," Fenwick said in 1987, when she retired as U.S. ambassador to the U.N. Food and Agriculture Organization.

She said she took up the pipe when her doctor told her to give up cigarettes.

Rep. Jim Courter, a New Jersey Republican who served with Fenwick, today praised her as one who "fought for those things she deeply believed in and really made no compromises, and I think people miss that in politicians sometimes today."

He called her "feisty right up to the end" and said she told him a few months ago that "'old age is not for sissies."

She was equally popular with Democrats, recalled former House Speaker Thomas P. "Tip" O'Neill. "She'd come into the Democratic lobby just as if she was a member of the Democratic Party," the Massachusetts Democrat said from his home on Cape Cod. "She had a million friends on the floor."

Fenwick was 64 when she was elected Republican representative from New Jersey's 5th Congressional District in 1974. Her opponent in the primary was Thomas H. Kean, who went on to serve two terms as governor in the 1980s.

In her four terms in the House, Fenwick fought for civil rights and curbs on campaign spending, often outraging her fellow representatives.

The liberal Americans for Democratic Action gave her a 58 rating in 1975 and a 65 in 1976. The conservative Americans for Constitutional Action gave her a 35 both years.

However, Fenwick maintained that her voting record reflected traditional American values — that fighting for justice and the equal protection guarantees of the Constitution "actually is a conservative position."

She was more often than not at odds with Republican President Gerald Ford. She voted to override Ford's veto of strip mining regulations, and opposed him on funding the B-1 bomber and aid to anti-Soviet forces in Angola.

Fenwick said one of the greatest achievements of her congressional career was the formation of the Helsinki Commission, which monitors compliance with the 1975 Helsinki Accord on human rights. Fenwick introduced the resolution that was signed into law.

In a 1991 interview, Fenwick said her passion for the protection of the individual from government intrusion began in the 1930s, when she saw pictures of Nazi Germany's oppression of Jews.

"I wondered, how could such a civilized country, that produced such great literature and music, come to this?"

She resigned her congressional seat in order to run for the U.S. Senate in 1982 and was defeated by Democrat Frank Lautenberg.

"We had about 6 million gallons going into the plant, and 80 million in the retention basin. We had nowhere else to put it," DeLong said.

He added that this was the first time the plant had had an overflow in quite some time.

The storm forced the DeMond's Super Valu Store at 410 N. Second St. in Niles to close when water backed up in the street and flowed into the door. Store Manager Dennis Wiser said the store re-opened this morning and there was minimal damage to food goods.

Robert Abrams, New York's attorney general, claimed victory today in a too-close-to-call battle with Geraldine Ferraro for the Democratic nomination to oppose Sen. Alfonse D'Amato. Two congressmen lost, bringing to a record 19 the number of House incumbents ousted in this season of voter discontent.

Democratic state Sen. Patty Murray of Washington set a record of a different sort, becoming the 11th woman nominated this year for a U.S. Senate seat.

In other highlights on the last big day of 1992 primary voting Tuesday:

■ Former Washington Mayor Marion Barry launched a comeback, winning nomination for a City Council seat. "This is a victory for the people," declared the man who went to prison for a 1990 drug conviction.

■ First-term Rhode Island Gov. Bruce Sundlun survived a scare in a Democratic primary from an opponent who criticized his handling of the state's banking crisis. He will face GOP nominee Elizabeth Leonard, a political newcomer. "This campaign has been the toughest of all," Sundlun said.

Sundlun had 52 percent of the vote to 48 percent for former three-term Warwick Mayor Francis X. Flaherty.

The congressmen who put 1992 into the record book were Democrats Chester Atkins of Massachusetts, who wrote 127 bad checks on the House bank, and Stephen Solarz of New York, with 743 overdrafts. Atkins lost to former prosecutor Martin Meehan; Solarz lost to Nydia Velazquez in a new, mostly Hispanic district.

The biggest race of the night turned out to be the closest. With 99 percent of precincts reporting, Abrams had 410,402 votes or 37 percent; Ferraro had 399,410 votes or 36 percent; civil rights activist Al Sharpton had 161,623 votes or 15 percent; and New York City Comptroller Liz Holtzman had 140,813 votes or 13 percent.

"We did it," Abrams told cheering supporters early today.

But Ferraro, the 1984 Democratic vice presidential nominee who was attempting a comeback, was not conceding. "It's a little bit tense," she said late Tuesday. "It's been a roller coaster, but we're all enjoying the see-saw."

11 women aim for seats

Associated Press

The victory by state Sen. Patty Murray in Washington's Democratic Senate primary brings to 11 the number of women nominated for Senate seats this year. That breaks the record of 10 set in 1984, according to the National Women's Political Caucus.

The 10 other women nominated this year are:

Rep. Barbara Boxer, D-Calif.
Carol Moseley Braun, D-Ill.
Dianne Feinstein, D-Calif.
Charlene Haar, R-S.D.
Jean Lloyd-Jones, D-Iowa
Sen. Barbara Mikulski, D-Md.
Gloria O'Dell, D-Kan.
Geri Rothman-Serot, D-Mo.
Claire Sargent, D-Ariz.
Lynn Yeakel, D-Pa.

300 attend Fenwick funeral

Politician's leadership and support of underdogs remembered

By FRED PIERETTI
Associated Press Writer

BERNARDSVILLE, N.J. — Millicent Fenwick, New Jersey's outspoken doyenne of politics and public service, was buried Saturday in a cemetery near her home.

Top New Jersey politicians were among about 300 people at the funeral at St. Bernards Church, the Episcopalian house of worship Mrs. Fenwick's family helped build a century ago in this affluent suburb 21 miles west of Newark.

"Millicent was a shining star, a guidepost for a lot of us in politics," said former Gov. Thomas Kean.

Known for her pipe-smoking and her outspoken, stylish manner, the former model and magazine editor was the inspiration for the Doonesbury cartoon character Lacey Davenport.

Her health declining in recent years, the 82-year-old Republican died at home on Wednesday.

Honorary pallbearers included Kean, a Republican, and Democrats Sen. Bill Bradley and former Rep. Peter Rodino. Also in attendance were former Gov. William Cahill and other members of New Jersey's congressional delegation.

Cahill said Mrs. Fenwick "was a great lady. She did a lot for the state and nation. We're going to miss her."

Jonathan Reckford, a grandson, recounted the personal side of his grandmother, who guarded her private life. In an often-humorous eulogy, Reckford recalled Mrs. Fenwick as a loving but exacting grandparent.

"She was very demanding. She expected 10-year-olds to read the New York Times," Reckford said.

On the serious side, Reckford echoed the sentiments of others when he recalled that Mrs. Fenwick had a "consuming and uncompromising passion for justice."

In a visit to New Jersey on Friday, President Bush remembered Mrs. Fenwick as someone who knew both privilege and adversity.

"She was deeply principled in politics for all the right reasons, to fulfill a deep and burning desire to achieve justice for all people," Bush said. "Her commitment to the underdogs of the world was matched only by her wit."

Mrs. Fenwick was born Feb. 25, 1910, into a family of wealth and privilege that believed public service was an obligation. Her mother, the former Mary Stevens, died en route to Paris to establish a hospital for victims of World War I when Germans sank the liner Lusitania in May 1915.

Mrs. Fenwick's father, Ogden Haggerty Hammond, was a successful New Jersey banker who served in the state Legislature and as U.S. ambassador to Spain.

In 1972, Cahill appointed Mrs. Fenwick the first director of the Division of Consumer Affairs. She also was the vice chair of the New Jersey Advisory Committee to the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights from 1958 to 1972.

At 64, Mrs. Fenwick was elected Republican representative from New Jersey's 5th Congressional District in 1974. During four terms in the House, Mrs. Fenwick fought for civil rights and curbs on campaign spending, often outraging her fellow representatives.

She resigned her House seat for an unsuccessful Senate run against Frank Lautenberg in 1982. The following year, President Reagan appointed Mrs. Fenwick the first U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations Food and Agriculture Organization. She retired in 1987.

She is survived by a son, Hugh Fenwick Jr., and 11 grandchildren. A daughter, Mary Stevens Reckford, died of leukemia in 1989.

Chapter II.

THE ROGERS FAMILY.

Bradfords history tells of the arrival on the Mayflower in 1620 at Plymouth, Mass. of Thomas Rogers and his son Joseph. The other children and the wife of Thomas followed a year later. Thomas died in the first sickness. Joseph married and had six children, Sarah, Joseph, Thomas, Elizabeth, John, Mary, James and Hanna. He died at Eastham, Mass., in 1678. John was appointed administrator for Thomas's estate. Freeman's history of Cape Cod gives the history of John's family. He signed an instrument for lot 32 at Burlington, N. J. on Sept. 9th, 1727 and his son William was given a commission as Lieutenant in the British Army in America by Viscount Cornbury Feb. 4th, 1705 at Fort Anne N. Y. It was his grandson Wm. Rogers III who was the Revolutionary hero of the Rogers line. He was an express rider, and despatch bearer in the war. Although he was a a Quaker he gave bountifully of his time and money to the cause of American liberty. He thwarted the attempt of the Hessian soldiers to destroy his grist mill which stood on his plantation between Mount Holly and Rancocas, N. J., bordered on the front by the shell road and at the back by Rancocas Creek. The place is now known as the McIlvaine Farm. Here were also his distillery for apple-jack and cherry bounce and the factory for making cement from oyster shells. The manor house built from bricks brought as ballast in the ships from England bore on its side elevation these letters and the date picked out in a different shade of brick:

W. & M.
R
1769

William and Martha Rogers. It was destroyed by fire about 1900. Here we have the complete Rogers line.

Thomas Rogers' name appears as a signer of the compact on the Mayflower Nov. 11, 1620. His son,

Lieut. Joseph, died at Eastham, Mass., 1678, his son,

John Rogers signed deed at Burlington, N. J., Sept. 9th, 1727, he died 1738. His son,

Lieut. Wm. Rogers, British Army in America, 1705, his son,
Wm. Rogers II M Elizabeth Branson, their son,

Wm. Rogers III M Martha Ester Gans, Aug. 19th,

1754, their son,

Henry Rogers M Rachel Haines Aug. 1795,

their daughter,

Beulah Rogers M Nathan Austin, Sept. 4th,
1828 their daughter,

Lydia Austin M Wm. P. Taylor Oct. 31, 1852

They had three daughters, Sarah Taylor Hunt, Susannah Taylor Reich and Grace Taylor Garland. For the history of the Rogers family from Lieut. Wm. Rogers down, see Sinnott, Rogers, Coffin, etc. Families.

The Rogers were Quakers and came from England.

The children of Charles and Sarah Taylor Hunt are Lydia Hunt Groff, Nora Hunt Bryan, Otto Hunt, C. Perry Hunt, Benjamin H. Hunt, Edna Beulah Hunt Rea, Carl Willis Hunt, Lavina Hunt Trossbach and Sarah Hunt Braa.

Chapter IV.

THE TAYLOR FAMILY

The Taylors, Garwoods, Austins, Rogers and Haines who settled Burlington County may rightfully be classified with the first families of New Jersey.

The forefather of the American Taylors was Samuel, who sailed in 1677 on the boat Martha of Burlington, Yorkshire, England and arrived with 114 passengers at Burlington, N. J., on the Delaware. He was born in County Derby, England, in 1633 and his will was filed in Burlington, N. J., Nov. 26th, 1723.

Among the Taylors who have distinguished themselves in American history was Zachary, the son of Richard, who became the 12th President of the United States in 1849 after a successful military career. His son Dick was a Conferate General and a member of the Secession Convention of Louisiana.

The Burlington County, N. J. Taylors, in the list of soldiers of the American Revolution, are Jacob, John A. and Thomas in the Army and Capt. Taylor who manned the boat Mars on the Delaware in the Navy. See Strykers.

Thomas Taylor, a son of Nathan Taylor and Susannah Garwood fought for the Union and died of disease in the Civil War.

The children of Samuel Taylor, the forefather, born between 1695-1705 were John, George, William and Robert.

John's children were John, Joseph, Robert, Charles, Samuel and William.

Joseph's son was David, and his son Thomas had two sons Nathan and Samuel.

Nathan Taylor married Susan Garwood, Sept. 25th 1831, in Mount Holly, N. J. Their children were:

Wm. Pancoast Taylor	M	Lydia A. Austin
Sarah Ann	M	Andrew Dennis
Lewis	M	Mary Green
Thomas	M	Mary Barry
Mary Jane	M	Wm. Barker

Wm. Pancoast Taylor and Lydia Austin Taylor had three children: Sarah Taylor Hunt, Susannah Taylor Reich and Grace Taylor Garland. Grace Taylor Garland is a member of the Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

The children of Charles H. and Sarah Taylor Hunt are: Lydia Hunt Groff, Nora Hunt Bryan, Otto Hunt, C. Perry Hunt, Benjamin H. Hunt, E. Beulah Hunt Rea, C. Willis Hunt, Lavina Hunt Trossbach and Sarah Hunt Braa.

The daughters of O. Reich and Susannah Taylor are: Charlotte R. Pattison and Dakota R. Baldry.

99%	Tennessee The Volunteer State Vol 2	The public schools of Humphreys county afforded Samuel Washington Taylor his early education and subsequently he entered McHenry's School at Shiloh. After putting his textbooks aside he taught school from 1886 to 1888, and farmed at the same time. In 1892 Samuel Washington Taylor founded the lumber and stave business known as S. Taylor & Company, the silent partner in the concern being J. A. Turner. Mr. Taylor's health failed in 1902, and leaving his partner to manage the lumber and stave business, he established a rolling mill, an enterprise which would not make such strenuous demands upon him. The mill has flourished from the start and Mr. Taylor devotes his entire time and attention to it. He is one of the best known men of McEwen and is much respec ted and honored. He is prominent in financial circles as a director of the First National Bank of Waverly and also of the McEwen Bank & Trust Company.
99%	The Centennial History of Waterville	who were agriculturally inclined. As a result of this good material there was a desire manifested very early in the life of the struggling young town to have an agricultural society organized, and this agitation resulted in the North Kennebec Agricultural Society, which was incorporated by the Maine legislature July 31, 1847, and its first exhibition was held in Waterville in October of that year. The annual address, which in those days was a very important part of an agricultural exhibition was delivered by Dr. E. Holmes of Winthrop. The original limit to this society included the towns of Fairfield and Smithfield in Somerset county, Waterville, Belgrade, Winslow, Clinton, Sebasticook now Benton, China and Albion in Kennebec and Unity and Burnham in the county of Waldo. From the records of the society from its inception, now before me, kindly loaned by Mr. Geo. Balentine, I find that the officers chosen at the organization of the society were as follows, Samuel Taylor, Jr., president; Ebenezer H. Scribner and Thomas Fowler, vice-presidents; Harrison A. Smith, secretary; Joseph Percival, treasurer and collector; Stephen Stark, agent; William Dyer, librarian; Samuel Taylor, Jr., Asher Hinds, Sumner Percival, John F. Hunnewell and Reuben H. Green, trustees. A glance through the subsequent elections shows that the society kept up its prestige for selecting men of ability and influence as its officials. We would like if space would permit to give the entire list of officers, but must be content with simply naming a few of the number who held the office of president of the society. After Samuel Taylor, Jr., the first president, came Sumner Percival, E. H. Scribner, Robert Ayer, Thomas S. Loring, Isaac W. Britton, Col. Isaiah Marston, Daniel Jones, B. C. Paine, Joseph Percival, and many others of equal calibre.

If your search results did not turn out as you hoped, try the following:

- In general, search on synonyms. Also double-check your spelling to make sure you didn't mistype the words you are trying to locate. Another option is to try a less restrictive request. For example, rather than searching on "census records Cook County Illinois," you could try the more general "census Illinois."
- For names, be sure to try alternate spellings. Also try searching only on a last name rather than a full name.
- When looking for states, be sure to search on both the abbreviation and spelled-out name. If you are searching for a county, leave off "County" and only search for the county name. Also remember that the boundaries and names of counties, states, and countries have changed over time, so you may need to search on either an older or more modern name to find what you are seeking. Your local library or genealogy society may have maps that can help you determine if this is the case for the locations you are researching.
- If you received too many matches, try a more specific search. For example, if you are searching for a name, add a location if it makes sense to do so. Or, instead of searching on a state, try searching on a county within that state. Sometimes looking at the results of your search can help you decide how to narrow it down.
